Patricia,

Enclosed are some of the Hinton's but looking at them you probably have the same as I have. I ran the pages off from my "Family Tree Maker" program.
It was the first time I used it for copies.

HINTON LETTER

THIS LETTER WRITTEN BY TOM HINTON MARCH 2, 1909
FROM HINTONVILLE, MISSISSIPPI TO MRS MATTIE CLARK
(MRS CHARLES EDWARD CLARK - NEE MATTIE SARAH RICHARDS) WAS ADDRESSED TO SCRANTON, MISSISSIPPI. (LATER NAMED PASCAGOULA)

MATTIE WAS THE DAUGHTER OF BENJAMIN AMMON RICHARDS
OF LORRAINE, MISSISSIPPI. SHE MARRIED CHARLES E. CLARK
IN 1903 AT BILOXI, MISSISSIPPI. THEIR DAUGHTER LILLIAN WAS BORN IN 1907 IN BILOXI (SHE IS MENTIONED IN THE LETTER)

CHARLIE AND MATTIE LIVED FOR A SHORT TIME IN SCRANTON WITH HIS PARENTS MR & MRS WILLIAM RUFUS CLARK BUT MOVED BACK TO BILOXI, HAD 3 MORE CHILDREN AND MADE THEIR HOME THERE.

HELP WANTED

WOULD APPRECIATE ANY HELP EXPLAINING HOW TOM HINTON WAS MATTIE RICHARDS CLARK'S COUSIN.

BENJAMIN AMMON RICHARDS WAS FIRST MARRIED TO EMMA HOLLEY, HIS SECOND WIFE (MATTIE'S MOTHER) WAS MARY J. LEE,
MARY J. LEE'S MOTHER WAS NAMED SARAH _____ LATER MARRIED A GREEN AND LIVED NEAR WIGGINS, MISSISSIPPI.
(SOME FAMILY MEMBERS THINK HER MAIDEN NAME <sup>WAS</sup> HINTON)

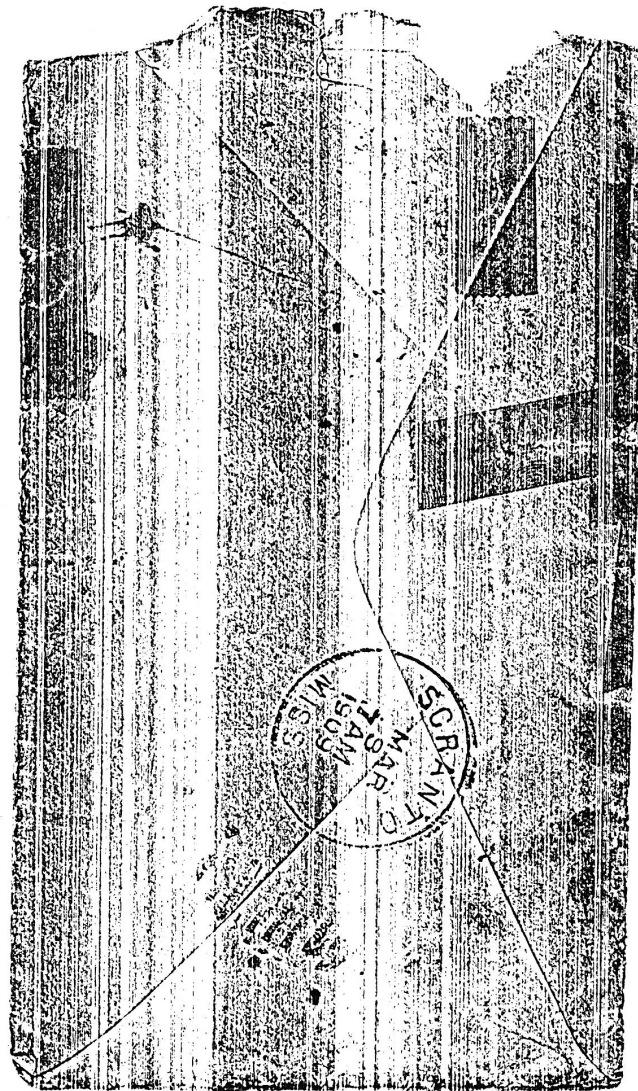

OTHERS IN OUR FAMILY THINK BENJAMIN AMMON'S MOTHER - ELIZABETH PITTS RICHARDS (A WIDOW WITH 2 CHILDREN WHO WERE NAMED MARY ANN & ALVIN) WHO WAS THE 3rd WIFE OF DOSETTE VALENTIN RICHARDS - SHE MARRIED HIM ON FEB.
22, 1836 — BELIEVE THAT ELIZABETH'S NAME BEFORE SHE MARRIED THE PITTS COULD HAVE BEEN HINTON.

BEAUMONT

Beaumont, seven miles southeast of New Augusta was established in 1900 and named for Beaumont, Texas. Jeff Griffis, a veneer mill operator; Bayliss Overstreet, merchant and member of the Board of Supervisors; and W.E. Daniels merchant, are remembered for their help in the building of the town.

It is said that an artesian well which flowed in the yard of the Barron Home had two kinds of water flowing from it, from a one inch pipe within a two inch pipe. A difference in the taste of the water could be noticed and it is said that fish would live in the water from one pipe but could not survive in water from the other.

BELLEVILLE

Located five miles west of New Augusta, Belleville was founded in 1902 when L.D. Hammit established a sawmill on this site. In 1922 the village consisted of three houses and was a flag stop on the Bonhomie, Hattiesburg & Southern Railroad. The name origin is unknown but by 1939 Belleville was no more than a ghost town.

BENMORE

Located four and one-half miles northeast of New Augusta.

BREWER

Located five miles northeast of Richton.

CORINTH

Located ten miles west of Richton.

DEEP CREEK

Located sixteen miles south of Beaumont near the Stone County Line.

EAST SIDE

Located one and one-half miles east of Richton.

FERGUSON

Ferguson was settled by a sawmill operator by that name when he built a sawmill in 1889 four miles east of New Augusta. The place later became a flag stop on the B H & S Railroad and a farm was later owned on this site by S.F. Ferguson.

GILLIS

Gillis took its name from a pioneer family who settled on this site three miles southeast of New Augusta in 1889. The place became a sawmill community in the early 1900's but when the mill closed so did Gillis.

GOOD HOPE

Located three miles north of Richton and three miles south of Rhodes.

GRANDEE

Located eight miles south of New Augusta.

HINTONVILLE

Located four miles north of Kittrell, Hintonville was established in 1902 and named for J.P. Hinton, an early settler. Like numerous other towns in the State, the village owes its origin to a sawmill from which a settlement developed which required the services of three stores and a post office.

Except for its nearness to the towns of Richton and Beaumont the place may have developed into a more prosperous town.

Four Killed In Tragedy Near Here Tuesday Evening

The entire population of Lucedale, and George County, as well as the state and southwestern section of Alabama were aroused Tuesday night, over the quadruple slaying, which is supposed to have been done
by Murdock Hinton at the Hinton residence one mile Southeast of Lucedale.

Those killed included Mrs. Mattie Hinton 38, her daughter, Gloria, her granddaughter Judy, and Sheriff J.
E. Nelson, who arrived to investigate the trouble.

The story, as pieced together by evidence, is that Hinton, who was separated from his wife, returned to the residence, shot the wife and granddaughter with buckshot. Gloria and a smaller brother, went to neighbors to summon the sheriff, who rushed to the scene. As he turned into the road leading to the house, he picked up Gloria and the younger brother. On arrival at the house, as he got out of the car, Hinton shot him. It is believed that he was shot in the back and as he lay on the ground another charge was fired into his heart. These three bodies were found at the Hinton residence. Hinton took the Sheriff's car and left the scene. The car was later found near Cook's Corner, wrecked, with the body of Gloria in the car. Examinations showed that she had been shot also,
with one of the loads going in the back of her neck. It was learned that the younger brother, jumped from the car and ran into a field.

Immediately a search was underway, with Highway Patrolmen from Mississippi and Alabama participating. M. B. Gavin, local Ford Deal-

Church Women Plan Day Of Prayer Program

The women of the churches of Lucedale, in compliance with the request of the World Council of Women have arranged a Day of Prayer on Friday, February 9th, (tomorrow). On that day, during every hour of the twenty four, The World Council, which is a world-wide organization, will arrange to have a group in earnest prayer for peace.

The local meeting will be held at the Methodist Church from 10:30 until mid-afternoon. All are welcome.

We feel there is no place to put our trust unless we can persuade God to overrule man's sins and blunders and He can, through the Holy Spirit, persuade men to accept and do His will.

The women are asking ALL to pray on that day. The chimes will ring at 12:00 noon, and they ask that everyone stop for those few minutes and pray earnestly that peace such as God can approve, may come to this troubled world.

The church will be open all day and anyone is welcome to enter at any time, kneel at the altar and petition God for His special attention now when the world needs it so much. All are welcome at the prepared services during the day.

Edlow Herbert Skipper, 32, died Friday from burns he received Thursday in a fire that destroyed his farm home and burning to death his wife and two-year-old daughter.

Slayer Of Sheriff Goes To Death At Wiggins Last Friday

Murdock Hinton was electrocuted at Wiggins, early Friday morning of last week, on his 48th birthday, for the slaying of George County Sheriff, J. E. Nelson, in December, 1948.

Hinton went to death without flinching in the state of Mississippi's portable electric chair set up in the Stone County courtroom. The electricution took place in front of the judge's bench in the courtroom in which Hinton was convicted in 1949 for the slaying of Nelson.

The fatal shock was sent into the convicted man's body at 12:08 a. m., according to the watch of W. C. Watson, the state executioner.

Forty-five seconds later, the current was turned off. At 12:11 a. m. three minutes after the shock, Drs. Joel Simpson and J. P. Murray made their examination and pronounced the man dead.

The doomed man was wearing a cross given to him by a priest, when brought into the courtroom. He was preceded into the room by Fr. Micheal Fox, of Gulfport, who a short while before administered the last rites.

Hinton's only words audible to spectators as he was strapped into the large wooden chair was a request to Sheriff Jesse Locke to clear the courtroom of people. The sheriff explained to Hinton, however, that it was necessary to have official witnesses.

There were some 50 persons in the courtroom for the execution. Hinton had been brought to Wiggins Thursday from the Hinds County jail at Jackson.

Hinton appeared perfectly calm as he exchanged words with the officers and Fr. Fox, inaudible to spectators.

Geta Slayer's Attention

Walter DuBose In J. P. Race

A newcomer in county political circles this week, is Walter J. Du-Bose, who makes his formal announcement as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, District No. One, George County.

Walter is well known throughout the district, and also in the county at large. He served one term as Marshal and Tax Collector of the Town, and also has just completed an unexpired term in the same office. He is asking for the job as Justice of the Peace, feeling that he is well qualified, as he has, during his term as Marshal, spent much time studying the laws of the state.

In making his announcement, he stated that he did not feel that he should make a lot of promises to the people—only one, and that being, if elected to this office, he would do his duty to the best of his ability.

The fatal shock was sent into the convicted man's body at 12:08 a. m., according to the watch of W. C. Watson, the state executioner.

Forty-five seconds later, the current was turned off. At 12:11 a.
m. three minutes after the shock,
Drs. Joel Simpson and J. P. Murray made their examination and pronounced the man dead.

The doomed man was wearing a cross given to him by a priest, when brought into the courtroom. He was preceded into the room by Fr.
Micheal Fox, of Gulfport, who a short while before administered the last rites.

Hinton's only words audible to spectators as he was strapped into the large wooden chair was a request to Sheriff Jesse Locke to clear the courtroom of people. The sheriff explained to Hinton, however, that it was necessary to have official witnesses.

There were some 50 persons in the courtroom for the execution. Hinton had been brought to Wiggins
Thursday from the Hinds County jail at Jackson.

Hinton appeared perfectly calm as he exchanged words with the officers and Fr. Fox, inaudible to spectators.

Gets Slayer's Attention

Out among the spectators, a man identifying himself as W. E. Wallers, of Pascagoula, raised his hands to attract Hinton's attention as the officers were strapping him into the chair.

"Murdock," declared Wallers, "I'll see you in Heaven."

A trace of a smile came onto the doomed man's face as he nodded.

There was not the slightest movement among the witnesses as Hinton paid the extreme penalty. The prisoner had been accused of slay-ing not only the sheriff, but Hinton's estranged wife, his 18-year-old daughter, Gloria, and his four-month old granddaughter.

Hinton's attorneys fought for a stay or prevention of execution right up to the last. The counsel—Attys.
Bidwell Adams, of Gulfport, and O.
L. McLeod, of Pascagoula—had taken the case through both the state and U. S. Supreme Courts and were hammering away with the contention their client was insane, when the state supreme court denied their petition.

In Memory of My Daddy

W.R. Eubanks "Bill"

*Who went to a better place,
February 9, 1986*

A million times I have needed
you,

A million times I have cried
If love alone could have spared
you

You never would have died
If all the world was mine to give
I would give it yes, and more
To see you coming up my steps
And walking thru my door.

To hear your voice, to see your smile

To sit and talk with you awhile
To be with you the same old ways

Would be my fondest wish today

A heart of Gold stop beating
Two smiling eyes at rest

God broke my heart to prove to me

He only takes the best
And since that day lest happy
times

My days have been more dim
But I feel the Angels are still Smiling to have you with them.
Never to be forgotten

You Daughter,
Dortha

trust in God our maker, he will take care of our sorrow.
